Smithfield High School

Smithfield, Virginia

Introduction

The Senior Class of Smithfield High School presents the theme of the 1965 Annual, "Through the Years," in an effort to preserve the past heritage of our community and to provide inspiration for future endeavor.

Students rapidly go through four years of academic and social preparation without adequate consideration for our local historical landmarks. Perhaps our very heritage prevents us from lingering on our past glories and instills a desire to surpass the achievements of our ancestors. Glory, however, must never be forgotten, but employed as inspiration for the accomplishment of goals.

Through the years of high school we have strived diligently to develop mentally, socially, and morally in a manner of which our forefathers would be proud. We, the graduating class, bequeath the contents of our yearbook to all successive classes with the hope that it will add to the heritage of Smithfield High School.

Administration

The School Board

The Isle of Wight County School Board represents the people of each district in matters concerning property maintenance and administration of the schools. Mr. Rufus H. Darden, Director of Instruction; Mr. John T. Butler, Newport District; Mr. J. Edward Hall, Windsor District, Vice-Chairman of School Board; Mr. William H. Sykes, Jr., Town of Smithfield, Chairman of School Board; Mr. James W. Eavey, Division Superintendent; Mr. Gwaltney W. White, Jr., Hardy District.

Mr. James W. Eavey
Division Superintendent

Through the years Isle of Wight County has had many outstanding superintendents. The first superintendent, Col. E. M. Morrison, was appointed in 1870 and was succeeded by W. S. Holland in 1882. Dr. Gavin Rawls became superintendent in 1886 and remained until 1922 when L. T. Hall succeeded him. In 1961 Paul W. Collins was appointed to the office and his position was filled by James W. Eavey in 1964.

Mr. Eavey was born in Weyers Cave, Virginia. He received his B.S. Degree from Madison College, and his Masters of Education from the University of Virginia. Mr. Eavey started his career as an elementary teacher. He was principal of William Byrd Junior High School in Roanoke County for five years and was Director of Instruction in Culpeper County for three years. Smithfield High School looks forward to the coming years under Mr. Eavey's capable leadership with the anticipation of progress.

So this is what the girls see in Smithfield Academy, built in 1826 as a classical school for young men, was used as a free public school after 1870 and as the Masonic Lodge from 1914 until the present lodge was completed.

Ham Staff 1965

Sue Whitley, Editor;
Mollie Bullock, Business
Manager; Mrs. J. Clayton,
Sponsor; Iny Chapman,
Assistant Editor.

The Annual Staff has labored industriously to produce a yearbook which will promote pleasant memories as "Through the Years" the graduates recall the school days at their alma mater.

The capable staff under the leadership of Mrs. Jean Clayton, has surmounted many obstacles including the loss of our elected editor, Linda Wells. The ability of the new editor and assistant editor has been reflected in the capable manner in which they proceeded in spite of difficulties.

Meeting the deadlines and getting the multiples ready for the publishers were the most vexing tasks, but the staff saw the final culmination of their ambitious and tedious hours of planning and effort.

Earning enough money to publish the yearbook was accomplished by the business staff. Besides annual subscriptions and soliciting advertisements, they sponsored a carwash, bake sale, basketball dance, pop bottle collection, and paper drive.

The staff's able photographer captured the year's events in a form that will provide an inspiration for memories.

The Annual Staff hopes that students and teachers will find a complete and interesting chronicle of their life at Smithfield High School during the past year.

The Pigs Tale

Stella Bryant, ASSISTANT EDITOR; Mrs. Violet Barlow, SPONSOR; Linda Little, BUSINESS MANAGER; Don Bogard, EDITOR.

Every six weeks the students of Smithfield High School look forward to the school newspaper, the "Pig's Tale." Each issue contains articles about sports, club activities, forthcoming events, new students, new teachers, and editorials about school life. The final issue of the "Pig's Tale" is devoted to the seniors. All commencement exercises and special awards are announced.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Violet Barlow, the "Pig's Tale" is published by a staff of selected students who are interested in journalism. Hard work is necessary to produce our paper since the actual reporting, proofreading, and photographing are done by the staff.

The paper is financed by ads from the merchants of Smithfield and surrounding areas, and proceeds from the school day pictures.

Beta Club

Carol Anne Saunders, Secretary-Treasurer; Percy Hundley, Vice-President; Mrs. Charlotte Gale, Sponsor; Sue Whitley, President.

The Beta Club, a national honor society, consists of Juniors and Seniors who have achieved academic excellence and have shown leadership abilities. To be chosen for membership a student must maintain a "B" average in academics and meet the approval of the faculty and present Beta members.

The club sponsors the first football dance and each month two members of the club present the assembly program. In November "The Beta Capers" are presented to finance a $100 scholarship presented to a worthy senior and send the members to the Beta Convention which is held alternately at Richmond and Roanoke.

As its main endeavor for this year the Beta Club introduced the Smithfield Scholastic Letter to be awarded to students who maintain at least a "B" average in five subjects for the first five, six weeks of the year. Final decision was made by the teachers and the letters were awarded at tapping ceremonies in May. Funds for purchasing the letters were provided by the P. T. A. The Beta Club hopes this will provide an incentive for better academic achievement as well as recognize worthy students. The Club and its sponsor, Mrs. Charlotte Gale, strive diligently achieving goals to distinguish one of the smallest clubs in the state.

Student Cooperative Association

Susan Mumford, Secretary-Treasurer; Raymond Thomas, President; Mr. J. B. Spinks, Sponsor; Brian Edwards, Vice-President.

Self government is extended to our students under the Student Cooperative Association. Each class elects representatives to the Student Council and they serve as the governing body, striving to form rules, execute projects, and support activities of the school. The Council worked this year to promote sportsmanship and school spirit and also helped to maintain the school grounds.

In November the Council attended a district meeting at Norview High School and in April, a representative group was present at the state S. C. A. Convention at Martinsville High School.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. J. B. Spinks the Council labored constantly to improve Smithfield High School.

The Council leaves for Norview for the District Convention.

Quill and Scroll

Anne Tomlin, President; Linda Little, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Jean Clayton, Sponsor; Mary Ellen Edwards, Vice-President.

The Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. Members are selected from Juniors and Seniors who have shown outstanding ability in the field of journalism and rank in the upper one-third of their class.

With the guidance of their sponsor, Mrs. Jean Clayton, the Quill and Scroll compiled a student handbook at the beginning of the school year to acquaint freshmen and new students with regulations, organizations, and faculty of the high school. In March, the Quill and Scroll held a very interesting chapel program and recognized their new members. During the summer the club members sponsored a pancake supper to send seven delegates to the S. I. P. A. Convention in Lexington, Virginia, and to present a scholarship to an outstanding senior at graduation. The Quill and Scroll enjoyed monthly programs and visited the Daily Press Office in Newport News.

Distributive Education Club

Jean Hill, Treasurer; Ward Wiley, President; Mr. Malcolm King, Sponsor; Ray Copeland, Parliamentarian; Bill Wood, Vice President; George Hamilton, Promotion Manager; Becky Atkins, Secretary.

The purpose of the Distributive Education Club is to train students in the field of marketing and distribution. This year D.E. was offered to Sophomores and their membership strengthened the club and made it more vital. During National D.E. Week, the club featured articles in the local paper to inform citizens of their purposes and activities. D.E. Day, held at Southern Department Store, provided the club with management experience and a percentage of the sales.

The District Contests were held at Suffolk High School with our club as "co-host." Students participated in ad-layout, job interview and sales demonstration contests. The annual Employer-Employee Banquet was held in the Spring to show appreciation to the "bosses." Delegates were sent to the state contest at Newport News. Sponsored by Mr. Malcolm King, the D.E. Club achieved outstanding and laudable accomplishments.

Future Homemakers of America

SEATED: Diane Taylor, President; Mrs. Alene Cox, Advisor; Patty Frost, Vice-President. STANDING: Mary Ann Copeland, Treasurer; JoAnn Nurney, Secretary.

The Future Homemakers of America chose as their goal this year "Action for Citizenship." By developing programs under such topics as "Being a Good Family Member is a Part of Citizenship" and "Making Virginia's Homes Safe and Beautiful," the F.H.A. hoped to stress their goal.

The club honored National F.H.A. Week by being kind to teachers. They also sponsored, during the year, a faculty car wash and basketball dance, a can goods collection for needy families at Thanksgiving, and a ham dinner in the spring. The annual Federation Dance, held at the Suffolk Shrine Club, was a festive affair with twenty-one couples attending.

The F.H.A., directed by Mrs. Alene Cox, proved extremely beneficial to the school and the entire community.

All girls who have lettered in varsity basketball or cheerleading qualify for the Monogram Club. The most eventful activity of the year is the choosing of the Homecoming Court to serve the Queen who is chosen by the Varsity Club. By secret ballot each class selects candidates of their choice. The Monogram Club considers the choices and selects also by secret ballot the class Princesses and the Senior Maid of Honor. The Club orders the traditional flowers for the Court. The Monogram Club is proud to carry out this duty every year. The new members receive the Monogram Club emblems to wear with pride on their white Monogram blazers.

Membership is an honor and jackets are a thing of great pride to the members. Activities during the year include sponsoring the homecoming dance and selling refreshments at the home basketball games. Proceeds are used to finance half the price of each new jacket. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Ben Rich the varsity boys have an occasional recreational activity and leave a useful gift to the school at the end of each year.

Latin Club

The Latin Club is an organization for all second year Latin students and the first year students who have a B average for the first semester. Its purpose is to apply the knowledge acquired in the classroom to the less serious side of life. The members have an opportunity to enjoy Latin and to develop more extensive learning of the subject.

The club met monthly this year and the members presented programs about Roman history, traditions, and mythology.

In February the Latin Club held its annual initiation of new members, a festive occasion when they dressed as gods and goddesses of Roman mythology. The high-light of the year was a banquet given in the true Roman style.

The Latin Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Martha Gwaltney, strives to preserve an interest in the classics and to prove that Latin is never a dead language.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Anne Mesite, promotes interest in the Spanish Language, and customs. First year Spanish students who have a C+ average and all second year students are eligible for membership.

The club entered a float in the Homecoming Parade. The theme was a "Spanish Burro" and even though it was dampened by rain, it proved to be a great success. The highlight of the year was the banquet, held in Spanish tradition with authentic decorations. The year closed with a picnic honoring the Senior club members.

There were fifty-six active members in the Future Farmers of America for the 1964-65 year. The club, advised by Mr. J. W. Garrett and Mr. Peyton Barlow who recently replaced Mr. A. T. Adams, participated in the Annual Peanut Federation Forestry Judging Contest held at Great Bridge in October.

Members of the club also participated in the Federation Crops Judging, Livestock Judging Contest and the Local Tractor Driving Contest sponsored by the Smithfield Ruritan Club.

A record number of entries were made in the Isle of Wight Junior Market Hog Show and Sale, and the Baby Beef Show and Sale. In December eighteen Green Hands, or new members, were initiated into the chapter. To raise money for activities, the club sold ads to the F.F.A. Calendar and also sold Christmas Cards.

Football

The Packers ended the 1964 season with an impressive 8-2 record. The loss of ten lettermen from the previous championship year did not dampen the team's spirit which proved outstanding again this year.

Coach Rich and assistants Duell, King, and Roy put the Packers through "strenuous" workouts and after days of drills and practices the Packers were in excellent condition. Featured games were with Northampton and Group 1-A Suffolk, both arch-rivals. The Packers defeated Northampton in a tough battle, 19-7. Although a Group -1A school, the Red Raiders proved to be no trouble for the mighty Packers who won 20-0.

Contrary to original beliefs, the Smithfield Packers proved to be a strong Group II foe. Under the outstanding direction of the new coach, Mr. J. A. Roy, the team came on strong this season. Lacking substantially in height, the Packers relied on defense, speed, well-manuevered plays, and energetic spirit.

At the end of the season the Packers found themselves in third place in the Division and on the way to the tournament. In the first tournament game they were edged out by Franklin by the heart-breaking score of 42-41.

To follow their undefeated season of last year with an equally successful one was the goal of the Junior Varsity team. The excellent coaching of Mr. B. C. Rich combined with the spirit of the players resulted in a record of ten wins and five losses. Smithfield fans cheered the J.V.'s to victory as enthusiastically as they did the Varsity team.

Al Gwaltney, Manager; Mr. B. C. Rich, Coach.

"The Monster Mash"

Well, I got my hand over anyway.

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's Larry!

Three members of the Smith-field track team distinguished themselves last year by earning the chance to compete in the State District I Group II Meet held in Charlottesville. The three who attended, Larry Price, Don Griffin, and A. J. Murphy, scored a total of 8 points. Larry placed second in the pole vault getting 3 points and A. J. was awarded 5 points: 3 for second place in the 100 yard dash and 2 for a third place in the 220.

How did I get up here?

"Roadrunner"

Don't look now, A. J., but someone's chasing you.

Varsity Cheerleaders

"The Spirit of Smithfield High" best describes the faithful Varsity Cheerleaders. Jeanette Jordan led the newly enlarged squad of ten in many an enthusiastic cheer in support of the teams. The squad inspired the spectators with their contagious spirit. Weekly practices, decorating the field and gym for Homecoming were some of their many activities. The honor of being a cheerleader carries with it the responsibility of maintaining a high standard of character and a scholastic average of "B".

Jeanne Watkins, Shelia Joyner, Carolyn Joyner, Brenda Irvin, Louise Rawls (Co-captain), Jeanette Jordan (Captain), Carol Anne Saunders, Linda Little, Ann Cox, Katherine Delk.

Marian Smith, Carol Spivey, ALTERNATE CHEERLEADERS; Patricia Douglas, Mona Cofer, MANAGERS.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have spurred their teams to victory with rousing spirit. The girls appeared at the games full of pep and enthusiasm. Their polished performances demonstrated many hours of practice.

Homecoming Day

The Sophomore Class had the "Most Outstanding Float."

Mac Neblett completes the picture for the Spanish Club.

Homecoming Day was one of the most exciting of the year. Classes of ten, twenty, and thirty years ago held their reunions and many college students came home for the festivities.

The day was complete with parade, game, and dance. The crowning of the queen, who was chosen by the football team, highlighted the game at halftime with Mr. George Crawford from WGH doing the honors. The queen's court consisted of a maid of honor from the senior class and four princesses, one from each class.

Beta Capers

King George Harrison, Paul McCartney Barlow, Ringo Saunders, and John Lennon Spinks.

More Beatles, but this Ringo got a haircut.

Billy Butterfield, the celebrity in the Beta Capers.

"The Trenchmen" finally made the "big time" when they were invited to play with Mr. Butterfield.

Deborah, you're supposed to be singing not laughing!

We will never forget the rendition of "Carolina in the Morning" presented by the "Beverly Hillbillies."

Judge Whitley didn't even have to use our giant microphone.

Gosh Brian, you sure have changed.

Jeanne Watkins gave a fine performance with her solo.

The annual Beta Capers featured the famous Mr. Billy Butterfield, who generously donated his talent to raise money for the Beta Club's scholarship fund.

The enthusiastic audience which numbered well over four hundred, thronged the Town Hall and left standing room only. School talent included the excellent playing of "The Trenchmen" and a long remembered presentation of "Twist and Shout" by King George, Paul Barlow, Ringo Saunders, and John Spinks.

A future Lawrence Welk star.

Ronnie Darden's piano medley add a Roaring Twenties flavor.

"Roses are Red" was never sung with so much expression.

Stairway to the Stars 1964

The Junior President, David Love, takes time out to welcome the Seniors.

The night of April 24 was the culmination of many months of painstaking preparation by the Junior Class.

As the guests arrived at the Community Hall, they ascended a blue hazed drawbridge leading into a castle on the crest of the stars. Murals of fantasy graced the walls and a huge majestic star revolved in the center of the clouds.

"The Knights" provided the dance music. During intermission David Love, the Junior President, welcomed the guests and John Godfrey, the Senior President, responded. The band played again to complete the gaiety of the evening.

The 1964 Junior-Senior Prom proved to be a night long remembered by all who attended.

Sweetheart Ball

Queen Donna and her attendants.

Donna Roeder was crowned "Queen of the 1965 Sweetheart Ball" on February 15 by Mr. J. G. Reveley. Her attendants were Barbara Little, Bonnie Stoup, Jean Hontz, and Brenda Irvin.

The Sophomore class decorated the Community Hall with cupids and hearts, and the favors and refreshments set a romantic mood for dancing. The lively music of "The Villagers" added the finishing touch to a most gala occasion.

"The Beethovens"

"The Trenchmen"

"Copycats"

"The Beethovens" and "The Trenchmen" added a new spark to the after-game dances. The live entertainment, a new custom started this year, attracted capacity crowds and large profits for sponsoring clubs.

"But Carolyn, you don't usually dance alone."

Southeastern F.H.A. Federation Ball

"Children should not play with fire."

"Eat, drink, and be merry!"

"Bewitched, Bothered, and Bewildered"

Approximately twenty F.H.A. girls from Smithfield and their escorts attended the Federation Ball on November 7 at the Suffolk Shrine Club. "The Beechnuts" furnished the lively music. Mrs. Alene Cox, the sponsor of the local chapter, was a chaperone.

1965 GRADUATES, CONGRATULATIONS!

A country in which it is possible for a backwoods boy to become the greatest national figure is a country in which we should be proud to live.

Abraham Lincoln rose to top position by industry - by constant striving. He should be an example to everyone of us.

We cannot all become President - we are not all Lincolns. Yet this democracy of ours permits every man and woman to achieve an honorable and comfortable station in life.

May each of you reach this goal.
